KCC is offering scholarships to residents of Roeland Park, KS whose families have committed to living in a missional community. A “missional community” is defined as “a group of people, about the size of an extended family, who are united through Christian belief around a common service and witness to a particular neighborhood or network of relationships.”

With that definition in mind, please answer the following questions:

- a. Describe your missional community and your commitment to it.

- b. How will attending KCC enhance or support your involvement in the community?

- c. What do you think is the importance of missional communities to the broader world? Or why have you chosen to be a part of a missional community?

- d. How has your participation in a missional community influenced your family?

*This scholarship opportunity is available only to residents of Roeland Park, KS. Proof of residency, such as utility or tax bill, is required.
